RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

In response to the Office Action mailed December 20, 2001, please amend the claims as follows:

Clean Version of Amendments

114 ~~166~~ A system for interacting with a mobile asset to encourage positioning of said mobile asset at a desired single location, comprising:
circuitry identifying position or motion information for said mobile asset, storage for data referencing activity of a mobile asset, processing circuitry reviewing said position or motion information and said data without human intervention, to correlate said position or motion information with activity of a mobile asset referenced in said data, identifying a desired single location for said mobile asset, and advising a person responsible for control of said mobile asset of the desired single location for said mobile asset based upon the correlation of said position or motion information with activity of a mobile asset referenced in said data.

118 ~~169~~ The system of claim 117 wherein said person responsible for control of said mobile asset is a driver of said vehicle. 115

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being transmitted via facsimile to the United States Patent and Trademark Office at telephone number 703-305-7687, on: March 13, 2002
